SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Mrs. William Roane Aylett of Newport News, who has been the guest of Mrs. William L. Royal, on West Avenue, this week, is leaving to-day for her home. Mrs. Aylett has been entertained at a number of lovely functions during her stay here, several of which were given in her honor. She was accompanied to Newport News by Miss Evelyn Gordon, who will spend some time in that place.

Going Abroad

Miss Eleanor Irving left yesterday for New York, after visiting Mr. T. H. Brown, of 23rd Street, and Mrs. William L. Royal, on West Avenue. Miss Irving will be the guest of friends in Charlottesville for a few days before leaving for her home in New Jersey. She expects to call from Boston, Mass., the latter part of April for a four months' tour of Europe, accompanied by her parents.

Prominent Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Potts, of Ashland, have made the arrangements of their daughter, Anna Macom, to Charles Keith, of Alexandria. The wedding is to take place some time in the month of June.

Japanese Pets Thursday

The Japanese fete that will be repeated at the Richmond Hotel this week will be held on Thursday night. Instead of this evening, the affair is under the direction of Miss Nora White, and will be given in the ballroom of the hotel from 9:30 to 11 o'clock. The whole place will be converted into a big Japanese tea garden for the occasion, and hung entirely with spring blossoms, Oriental lights and lanterns. The numerous tables, many of which have been reserved days in advance, will be arranged around the central space in the floor cleared for dancing, and an orchestra will play throughout the evening. All persons who will take part in the dancing are requested to wear evening clothes, and no Japanese costume will be necessary for those attending the fete.

Of Interest Here

Says the Baltimore Sun:

"A wedding of interest here will take place Saturday evening, 14, in St. Bartholomew's Chapel, New York, where Miss Emily Rogers will be married to Henry Kelly Brent, who at one time lived in this city. Miss Anne Rogers, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Rogers, of Hyde Park, and New York, will be the bride's only attendant. John Shillito Rogers is to give his sister in marriage."

Charles Scott Brent, of Lexington, Ky., and his brother, Bert, and the ushers will include Messrs. C. Chauncey Stillman, H. Pendleton Rogers, John W. Prentiss, Lawrence L. Gilbreath, William H. Whetlock, Henry D. Gandy, A. S. Ward, Walter Lansdowne, P. Martin, etc. On Thursday night Mr. Brent is to give his farewell bachelor dinner at the Harvard Club.

"Miss Rogers is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pendleton

Brent.

Birthdays

The Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will hold its regular monthly meeting this morning at 11 o'clock in Lee Camp Hall. Reports from the committee on the Centennial to the unveiling of the Arlington Monument and other important business are to be transacted at this time. Visiting Daughters are always welcome.

The Florence Nightingale Circle of the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital will hold its regular monthly meeting to-day at 11:30 o'clock.
